Because life matters most.

further

www.wegofurther.com

15/10/2020

Destination of Treatment

Country of Origin	Austria	Belarus	France	Germany	Hong Kong	Ireland	Israel	Italy	Japan	Malaysia	Singapore	Spain	South Korea	Switzerland	Taiwan	Turkey	UK	USA
Albania	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from Albania will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers are encouraged to undertake a PCR test prior to travel or in the airport upon arrival. If not, you will be asked to comply with a seven-day isolation period at your place of residence or in a suitable accommodation facility.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to fill in a self-declaration form specifying the reason for entering to Italy and they must self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities for 14 days. There are exceptions	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or situation of need are allowed to enter Spain. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Albania are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Bosnia & Herzegovina	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from Bosnia & Herzegovina will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers have to either present a negative PCR test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, or submit to such a test at the airport upon arrival in France.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Passengers traveling for health reasons can enter Italy. They must fill in a self-declaration and self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or situation of need are allowed to enter Spain. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Bosnia & Herzegovina are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Bulgaria	EU/EEA/Swiss citizens arriving from a high-risk area are obligated to produce a medical certificate proving a negative COVID-19 PCR test (the test cannot be be older than 72 hours)	Travellers from Bulgaria will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK. Travellers from Wuhan/Hubei and Daegu/Gyeongsangbuk regions in Bulgaria must present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Citizens from Bulgaria can access the country without quarantine obligation. The requirement to fill in a self-declaration remains.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	Travellers from countries in the EU, United Kingdom, Iceland, Norway may now enter Switzerland.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
China	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from China will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers are encouraged to undertake a PCR test prior to travel or in the airport upon arrival. If not, you will be asked to comply with a seven-day isolation period at your place of residence or in a suitable accommodation facility.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	All travellers must present a completed Health Declaration Form upon arrival, and have undergo 14 days of compulsory quarantine. Certain groups of people travelling from mainland China may be granted an exemption from quarantine requirements by applying in advance to the Chief Secretary of the Administration.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Passengers traveling for health reasons can enter Italy. They must fill in a self-declaration and self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	For travellers from Mainland China the long visa-free tourism duration is shortened from 14 days to 7 days. Travellers will be required to serve their SHN at their place of residence, and undergo a COVID-19 test at the end of their SHN.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from Europe Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	Travellers from other countries who have the necessary visas and permits to enter, and authorized healthcare professionals may still enter the country.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Croatia	EU/EEA/Swiss citizens arriving from a high-risk area are obligated to produce a medical certificate proving a negative COVID-19 PCR test (the test cannot be be older than 72 hours)	Travellers from Croatia will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK. Travellers from regions Vukovarsko-srijemska, Grada Zagreba, Primorsko-goranska, Splitsko-dalmatinska, Zagrebačka have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Citizens from Croatia can access the country without quarantine obligation. The requirement to fill in a self-declaration remains.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Croatia are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Egypt	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from Egypt will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers are encouraged to undertake a PCR test prior to travel or in the airport upon arrival. If not, you will be asked to comply with a seven-day isolation period at your place of residence or in a suitable accommodation facility.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Passengers traveling for health reasons can enter Italy. They must fill in a self-declaration and self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or situation of need are allowed to enter Spain. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	Travellers from other countries who have the necessary visas and permits to enter, and authorized healthcare professionals may still enter the country.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Hungary	Travellers from Hungary will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers from Hungary will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK. Travellers from Wuhan/Hubei and Daegu/Gyeongsangbuk regions in Hungary must present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Citizens from Hungary can access the country without quarantine obligation. The requirement to fill in a self-declaration remains.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Hungary are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Indonesia	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from Indonesia will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers are encouraged to undertake a PCR test prior to travel or in the airport upon arrival. If not, you will be asked to comply with a seven-day isolation period at your place of residence or in a suitable accommodation facility.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Travellers who have been in Indonesia in the past 14 days must have a medical certificate with a negative COVID -19 nucleic acid test result issued at most 72 hours before departure. The certificate must be in Chinese or English. They must also have a confirmation in English or Chinese of a hotel reservation in Hong Kong.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Passengers traveling for health reasons can enter Italy. They must fill in a self-declaration and self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or situation of need are allowed to enter Spain. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	Travellers from countries in the EU, United Kingdom, Iceland, Norway may now enter Switzerland.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Italy	Travellers from Italy will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers from Italy will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	N/A	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from the regions Liguria, Campania, Sardinia, Veneto in Italy are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	You may not have to self-isolate if you are travelling from Italy, however you must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Poland	Travellers from Poland will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers from Poland will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Citizens from Poland can access the country without quarantine obligation. The requirement to fill in a self-declaration remains.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	Travellers from countries in the EU, United Kingdom, Iceland, Norway may now enter Switzerland.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Portugal	Travellers from Portugal now only need a negative COVID-19 PCR test (the test cannot be older than 72 hours) when arriving from Lisbon or the Norte region.	Travellers from Portugal will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK. Travellers from Lisbon have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Citizens from Portugal can access the country without quarantine obligation. The requirement to fill in a self-declaration remains.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Portugal are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Romania	EU/EEA/Swiss citizens arriving from a high-risk area are obligated to produce a medical certificate proving a negative COVID-19 PCR test (the test cannot be be older than 72 hours)	Travellers from Romania will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK. Travellers from Romania have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers must self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities; they must also fill in a self-declaration indicating their reasons for entering to Italy.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Romania are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Russia	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from Russia will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers are encouraged to undertake a PCR test prior to travel or in the airport upon arrival. If not, you will be asked to comply with a seven-day isolation period at your place of residence or in a suitable accommodation facility.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers from Russia have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers must self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities; they must also fill in a self-declaration indicating their reasons for entering to Italy.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or situation of need are allowed to enter Spain. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Russia are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Serbia	Entry is prohibited to third-country nationals when arriving from states outside the Schengen area.	Travellers from Serbia will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers have to either present a negative PCR test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, or submit to such a test at the airport upon arrival in France.	Cross-border travel for urgent reasons such as medical treatment will be allowed on a case-by-case basis, regardless of nationality. Travellers from Serbia have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Passengers traveling for health reasons can enter Italy. They must fill in a self-declaration and self-isolate and undergo supervision by the competent health authorities.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or situation of need are allowed to enter Spain. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	Travellers from other countries who have the necessary visas and permits to enter, and authorized healthcare professionals may still enter the country.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Slovenia	Travellers from Slovenia will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers from Slovenia will not need to quarantine or provide a medical certificate.	Travellers arriving from European area may enter France without any requirement to self-isolate. They will need to complete a 'sworn statement for self-certifying they are not suffering from symptoms associated with Covid19.	Unlimited entry for citizens from all EU and Schengen associated countries and UK. Travellers from Gorenjska, Goriška, Osrednjeslovenska, Primorsko-notranjska, Savinjska, Zasavska regions have to present a valid test taken within 48 hours prior to arrival.	Hong Kong has restricted the entry of foreign nationals who have been in areas other than China, Taiwan, or Macau in the past 14 days.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not nationals or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific entry approval from the population and Immigration Authority of Israel may still enter the country.	Citizens from Slovenia can access the country without quarantine obligation. The requirement to fill in a self-declaration remains.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for the time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	All foreign nationals, with only limited exceptions, are restricted from entry to Malaysia until December 31, though this end date may be further extended at the discretion of the Malaysian government.	Travellers entering Singapore will be tested for COVID-19 and must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay-Home-Notice (SHN) facility at their cost; travellers are responsible for covering all of these costs.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from European Union and Schengen countries. It is mandatory to fill out and sign the PCS form (on the web sgtrg&cbs.es or in our mobile app) associated with your trip.	All travellers entering Korea must install the Self-Diagnosis App and are subject to a 14-day quarantine from the day after arrival.	People arriving in Switzerland from Slovenia are required to go into quarantine for 10 days. A negative test result does not exempt you from the mandatory quarantine requirement.	Upon entry, Taiwan requires all foreign nationals to complete a health declaration, present an English-language certificate of a negative COVID-19 test taken within three working days of boarding the flight to Taiwan and undergo a 14-day home quarantine period.	Turkey has now lifted its COVID-19 travel restrictions. Passengers arriving in Turkey will be required to complete an information form and will be checked for symptoms.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and self-isolate for 14 day.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
UK	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently advises British nationals against all but essential international travel. This advice is being kept under constant review.	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently advises British nationals against all but essential international travel. This advice is being kept under constant review.	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently advises British nationals against all but essential international travel. This advice is being kept under constant review.	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently advises British nationals against all but essential international travel. This advice is being kept under constant review.	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently advises British nationals against all but essential international travel. This advice is being kept under constant review.	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently advises British nationals against all but essential international travel. This advice is being kept under constant review.	The Foreign & Commonwealth Office currently