www.wegofurther.com

Because life matters most further

11/1/2021

Destination of Treasurebird

Country of Origin	Austria	Belarus	France	Germany	Hong Kong	Ireland	Israel	Italy	Japan	Malaysia	Singapore	Spain	South Korea	Switzerland	Taiwan	Turkey	UK	USA
Albania	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Albania must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you do not have this result, you will have to take a test on your airport on arrival.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Bosnia & Herzegovina	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Bosnia & Herzegovina must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you do not have this result, you will have to take a test on your airport on arrival.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Bulgaria	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Bulgaria must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from Europe are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
China	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travelers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	If you are arriving China you must present a negative test result and must stay more than 72 hours before travelling.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	On October 30, the Government of Japan announced that it has applied all arrivals must present a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their departure time.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers from mainland China are allowed to enter Singapore for Travel Pass (ATP). They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test and to self- isolate while waiting for results.	Spain lifted national travel restrictions and also reopened its borders to passengers from China. It is mandatory to fill out a health control form (on the web spring.gob.es or in our mobile app) assistencia with your city.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.	The United States has reinforced the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Beijing, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Croatia	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Croatia must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Egypt	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travelers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	Travellers are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Hungary	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Hungary must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.	The United States has reinforced the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Beijing, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Indonesia	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travelers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	Travellers are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	Travellers from Indonesia must present a medical certificate, issued within 72 hours prior to departure, showing a negative COVID-19 test result. Travellers will undergo a COVID-19 test upon arrival.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Passengers who document reasons of force majeure or of humanitarian situation of must see and sign the ITCS form (on the web spring.gob.es or in our mobile app) assistencia with your city.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Italy	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Italy must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	N/A	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.	The United States has reinforced the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Beijing, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Poland	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Poland must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from Poland (except the region of Podlaskie) must have a negative PCR test carried out within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.	The United States has reinforced the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Beijing, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Portugal	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Portugal must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from Portugal (except the region of Algarve) must present a negative PCR test carried out within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.	The United States has reinforced the entry of all foreign nationals who have visited Beijing, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Romania	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Romania must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a ID, and isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European are strongly recommended to present a negative test result, carried out less than 72 hours before departure, upon your arrival in France. If you are not carrying they are not suffering from symptoms assessment with Covid19.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	Travellers from Romania must present a medical certificate, issued within 72 hours prior to departure, showing a negative COVID-19 test result and must stay in designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result) in order to board the flight and on immigration in Singapore. They must also self-isolate for 14 days at a dedicated Stay Home Notice (SHN) facility in Singapore.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result taken within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result taken within 72 hours of their departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers arriving in Taiwan for emergency situations such as seeking emergency medical treatment, can enter Taiwan.	As of December 30, all passengers who arrive in Turkey through an land or sea will be required to present a negative PCR test result document issued 72 hours prior to arrival.	The United Kingdom does not have entry restrictions, however all travellers must show proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border and will undergo five days.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect enhanced screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Russia	A 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. Albe'r stays of 5 days or less are not a problem, you can get a PCR or antigen test 48 hours before your flight to Austria. Please see further. When arriving you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travelers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	If you are arriving Russia you must present a negative test result and must stay more than 72 hours before travelling.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent matters, but there is a mandatory medical test. To prove that this is the case, the person to be tested will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	Travellers from Russia must present a medical certificate, issued within 72 hours prior to departure, showing a negative COVID-19 test result and must stay in designated Quarantine Hotel for undergoing 21-day quarantine. For more info webpage: https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/quarantine_hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from countries outside Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and self-quarantine for 14 days.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not citizens or residents of Israel. Travellers who take specific exceptions from the population and immigration authority, of Israel may still enter the country.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative Coronavirus (COVID-19) molecular or antigen test taken at most 48 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Foreign nationals are denied permission to enter Japan for this time being, unless there are exceptional circumstances.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or designated hotel and must undergo a COVID-19 test upon release. Malaysian nationals are exempted from SOMC. All foreigners will be required to undergo COVID-19 testing on the second and ninth day.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 PCR test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (with negative COVID-19 result