1/3/2021

Destination of Treatment

Country of Origin	Austria	Belarus	France	Germany	Hong Kong	Ireland	Israel	Italy	Japan	Malaysia	Singapore	Spain	South Korea	Switzerland	Taiwan	Turkey	UK	UAE
Albania	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Albania must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	All travellers arriving in France from a country outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to the webpage https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Bosnia & Herzegovina	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Bosnia & Herzegovina must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	All travellers arriving in France from a country outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Bulgaria	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Bulgaria must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from countries outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
China	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travellers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	All travellers arriving in France from a country outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Spain Wood-national Fair-grown and Fair-trade Travel Pass (ATF) They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test on the early morning/afternoon flight into PCR form and to self- isolate while waiting for results.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	Travellers from select Taiwan	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals, with the exception of those who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Croatia	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Croatia must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from European area will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Egypt	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travelers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	All travellers arriving in France from a country outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Hungary	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Hungary must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	Travellers arriving from countries outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals, with the exception of those who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Indonesia	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Foreign travelers must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result.	All travellers arriving in France from a country outside the European space will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	Travellers from Indonesia must present a medical certificate, issued within 72 hours from a medical practitioner, to prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All international travellers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
Italy	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Italy must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	All travellers arriving in France from European area will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	N/A	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from Italy (except the Sardegna, Abruzzo and the Valle d'Aosta regions) must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-designated facility, at their own expense.	Individuals travelling for an important medical reason that cannot be postponed are exempt from the quarantine requirement in Switzerland.	All travellers are required to provide a COVID-19 PCR certificate with a negative test report issued within 72 hours prior to their flight to Taiwan. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-health management and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 12.	All international passengers aged 5 years and older travelling to Turkey are required to present a negative test result taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their flight. Passengers must undergo a 14-day self-quarantine and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	All travellers must provide proof of a completed passenger locator form at the UK border, go 2 days isolation and have taken a COVID-19 test within 3 days of travel to England. Passengers must undergo a 10-day self-isolation and will be tested for the second time at the end of day 8.	The United States has restricted the entry of all foreign nationals, with the exception of those who have visited Brazil, China, Iran, the Schengen Area, Ireland, or the United Kingdom in the past 14 days.
Poland	All travellers entering Austria MUST register in advance and obtain a so called "pre-travel clearance" (PTC), in order to enter Austria at the border. they will need to show their PTC, a 10-day self-quarantine is mandatory when arriving from a risk area. When arriving, you need to present a Declaration of Quarantine' form.	Travellers from Poland must have a medical certificate, issued within 48 hours of arrival, indicating a negative COVID-19 test result and a 21-day self-isolation requirement is in place.	All travellers arriving in France from European area will need to present a negative RT-PCR test from less than 72 hours before boarding. You will also be required to self-isolate for seven days on arrival, and take a second test at the end of that period.	It is possible to enter Germany for urgent medical reasons. To prove that this is the case, the person to be treated will need a medical certificate to be filled in by the attending physician in Germany.	All travellers arriving in Hong Kong from countries outside China must stay in a designated quarantine hotel for undergoing a 14-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.immdwww.gov.hk/en/coming-to-hongkong-designated-hotel.html.	All travellers arriving in the country from areas except Northern Ireland are required to complete a Public Health Passenger Locator Form and provide a negative result from a COVID-19 test carried out no more than 72 hours before you arrive in Ireland. Ireland is the only country in the world to have three different arrivals forms for travellers arriving from Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the rest of the world. Failure to complete a mandatory questionnaire.	Israel has restricted the entry of all travellers who are not Israelis or residents of Israel. Travellers who have specific pre-approval from the population and immigration authority, or who are in transit, are required to self-isolate. They must also undergo a COVID-19 test on arrival at the destination from.	Travellers will be required to present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours before arrival and are subject to self-isolation. They must fill in a self-declaration form.	Travellers must submit a certificate of negative test result conducted within 72 hours of arrival and are required to undergo a 14-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Foreigners with valid visas will be subject to a mandatory 21-day quarantine in a government facility or a designated hotel. Travellers from Wuhan, Hubei, or Hubei province must undergo a 21-day quarantine. For details, please refer to https://www.moh.gov.my/index.php/pages/view/2019-ncov-wuhan.	Travellers are not allowed entry, unless with valid approval letter for entry. They will be required to a 14-day quarantine. They will be required to undergo a COVID-19 test within 72 hours before departure and they need to present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	Travellers from a high risk country or area must present a negative PCR test result (virus (COVID-19) antigen) test taken at the departure airport within 72 hours prior to their arrival in Spain. The certificate must be in English or Spanish.	All foreign travelers must present a medical certificate with a negative COVID-19 PCR test result issued within 72 hours of departure and are subject to a mandatory 14-day quarantine at a government-design